

The South Bay 350 Climate Action Group is a new alliance made up of members from the following organizations, elected officials, businesses, agencies and cities who have come together to help plan and actively participate in the South Bay Los Angeles Climate Action to be staged in on the beach in Manhattan Beach on October 24, 2009 in support of the 350.org International Day of Climate Action.

1. City of Manhattan Beach – Sona Kalapura, City Environmental Programs Manager
2. South Bay Cities Council of Governments – Jackie Bacharach, Executive Director
3. L.A. County Supervisor Don Knabe – Steve Napolitano, Deputy to Supervisor
4. L.A. County Supervisor Mark Ridley-Thomas – Karly Katona, Sustainability Deputy
5. Congresswoman Jane Harman – Diane Moss, Environmental Deputy
6. State Senator Jenny Oropeza – Sharon Weissman, Chief of Staff
7. Greenpeace (Los Angeles Chapter) – Jenny Binstock, Southern California Field Organizer
8. Surfrider Foundation – Joe Geever, California Coordinator
9. Heal the Bay – Saira Gandhi, Volunteer & Internships Coordinator
10. OxFam America – John Dolan, Regional Advocacy Lead- Los Angeles
11. EcoMedia – Janice Sakamoto, Government Relations & Events
12. South Bay Environmental Services Center – Marilyn Lyon, Program Manager
13. League of Women Voters of the Beach Cities– Maggie Wilkinson, Natural Resources Chair
14. VOICE (Volunteers and Organizations Improving the Community's Environment) – Kaye Gagnon, President
15. PV/South Bay Audubon Society – Ollie Corker, Board of Directors
16. Waste Management, Inc. – Vickie Wippel, Community Relations Manager
17. EPOS Inc. (Print & Web Design Studio) - Gabrielle Raumberger, Executive Creative Director
18. Urban Semillas – Miguel Luna, Executive Director
19. Environmental Priorities Network – Lillian Light, President
20. TeachingGreen, Kathleen Jacecko, Founder/Director
21. Tree Musketeers – Adam Gerard, President/Board of Directors

22. Grades of Green - Suzanne Kretschmer, President
 23. Los Angeles County Bicycle Coalition - Juliet Marshal, Volunteer/ Membership Coordinator
 24. Friends of Madrona Marsh – Bill Arrowsmith, President
 25. Torrance Democratic Club – Rick Wagner, President
 26. Beach Cities Democratic Club – Dency Nelson, 53rd Assembly District Man of the Year
 27. Palos Verdes Peninsula Democratic Club - Hans Grellmann, Vice President
 28. Pacific Unitarian Church – Bill Unger, Chairman, Social Justice Committee
 29. Citizens for Global Solutions – Becky Tan, Manhattan Beach Chapter Leader
 30. Alliance for Climate Education - Ethan Burke, President
 31. Citizens Climate Lobby - Efaon Cobb, Director of Community Outreach
 32. GRID Alternatives – Kevin Smith, Volunteer and Training Associate
- The City of Manhattan Beach passed a unanimous resolution on September 14, 2009 endorsing this event and becoming the official host city.
 - The Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors passed a unanimous resolution on September 29, 2009 endorsing this event, declaring October 24 the International Day of Climate Action in Los Angeles County and strongly urging all residents of the County to attend this event in Manhattan Beach.
 - The Cities of Hermosa Beach, Redondo Beach and Torrance all have scheduled City Council resolutions endorsing this event and calling upon their citizens to participate on October 24
 - Over 50 area grammar schools, junior high schools, high schools and colleges are participating in this event and will be represented in our Amazing Waving Human Tide Line.